

CLIR/Library of Congress Mellon PhD Fellowship

The fellowship is for PhD students enrolled at a US university, who will reside at LC for a period of 6+ months, using Library original sources, and utilizing all the capabilities of the Preservation Research and Testing Division to aid the research they are undertaking, focusing on the link between science and the digital humanities.

Please see the posting for the CLIR/Library of Congress Mellon fellowship at the following webpage link <http://www.clir.org/fellowships/mellon/preservation.html>. The closing date for applications is 5pm, April 18, 2012.

If you have questions you can contact Amy Lucko at CLIR alucko@clir.org, or Dr. Fenella France frfr@loc.gov at the Library of Congress.
